

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, JESSICA JAE HODGE, of Harris County, Texas, make this my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, and I revoke all Wills previously made by me.

ARTICLE I.

Identification

1.1 Spouse. My husband's name is RICHARD DEAN HODGE. All references in this Will to "my husband" are to him.

1.2 Children. From a previous marriage, I have two living children, OLIVIA R. DURR and CHRISTIAN A. DURR, and a deceased child, MICHAEL J. DURR. My husband has two children from a previous marriage, KELSEY HODGE and KASEY HODGE. All references in this Will to "my children" are to OLIVIA R. DURR, CHRISTIAN A. DURR, KELSEY HODGE, and KASEY HODGE. All references to my "descendants" are to OLIVIA R. DURR, CHRISTIAN A. DURR, KELSEY HODGE, and KASEY HODGE and the children or more remote descendants of OLIVIA R. DURR, CHRISTIAN A. DURR, KELSEY HODGE, and KASEY HODGE.

ARTICLE II.

Residue

2.1 Trust Agreement. I give the residue of my estate, IN TRUST, to the trustee (the "Trustee") of the trusts created under that certain Trust Agreement of even date herewith, and as it may be amended from time to time, executed by and between my husband and me, as Grantors and as initial Co-Trustees (the "Trust Agreement"), which Trust Agreement initially created the Lonergan Revocable Trust, to be allocated among the trusts created under the Trust Agreement in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement.

2.2 Disposition if Trust Agreement not in Existence. If for any reason no trust held under the Trust Agreement is in existence at the date of my death, the residue of my estate shall nonetheless be distributed as provided in the Trust Agreement, to be held, administered and distributed pursuant to the terms of the Trust Agreement, and the trusts under the Trust Agreement shall be deemed created or reinstated by virtue of such distribution.

ARTICLE III.

Fiduciary Appointments

3.1 Named Executors. I appoint my husband, RICHARD DEAN HODGE, to be Independent Executor of my Will and estate. If my husband for any reason fails or ceases to serve, I appoint OLIVIA DURR and CHRISTIAN DURR, successively and not jointly, in the order named, to be Independent Executor of my Will and estate.

3.2 Meaning of Fiduciary Terms. Unless another meaning is clearly indicated or required by context or circumstances, the term "Executor" shall include any administrator, and the term "Executor" shall also mean and include any alternates or successors.

3.3 Independent Administration Without Bond. No bond or other security shall be required of my Executor in any jurisdiction. No action shall be required in any court in relation to the settlement of my estate other than the probating and recording of my Will and the return of an inventory, appraisement and list of claims of my estate or an affidavit in lieu thereof, as required by law.

3.4 Expense Reimbursement and Reasonable Compensation. Every Executor shall be reimbursed for the reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with such Executor's duties, and every Executor shall be entitled to fair and reasonable compensation for services rendered by such Executor in an amount not exceeding the customary and prevailing charges for services of a similar character at the time and place such services are performed.

3.5 Ancillary Executor. If ancillary administration is required in any state or other jurisdiction in which my Executor shall be unable or unwilling to qualify, then my domiciliary Executor shall designate in writing the person to act in such capacity, with all the powers and immunities of my domiciliary Executor. Unless prohibited by the laws of the state or other jurisdiction in which such property is located, I direct that upon sale by the ancillary fiduciary of any property the net proceeds thereof shall be paid to my domiciliary Executor.

3.6 Incapacity. No person who is incapacitated shall serve or continue to serve as a fiduciary hereunder. For purposes of this Will, a person shall be considered "incapacitated" (i) if such person is a minor under applicable law, (ii) upon a declaration of incompetency by a court of competent jurisdiction or (iii) when such person's primary physician certifies in writing that, based on such physician's examination of such person, the person is mentally incapable of managing and/or giving prompt and intelligent consideration to his or her financial matters; provided, however, if such person does not have a primary physician or if he or she has a primary physician but such primary physician refuses or is unwilling to certify in writing whether or not such person is capable or incapable of managing his or her financial affairs, then such determination of or whether or not such person shall be considered incapacitated may instead be made by two other physicians. By accepting any appointment as a fiduciary under this Will, each fiduciary hereby authorizes each physician who examines such person to determine his or her incapacity, disclose such person's physical or mental condition, disclose the physician's diagnosis or opinion, and release a written certification of the results of the physician's findings to any person interested in my estate or any trust created under the Trust Agreement and/or to the other co-fiduciaries then serving.

ARTICLE IV.

Administrative Provisions

4.1 Survivorship. No person, except my husband, shall be deemed to have survived me if such person dies within 90 days after my death. In the event that my husband and I die in such a manner that it cannot be determined in what order our deaths occurred, then my husband shall be presumed to have predeceased me. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, a person named or identified who is appointed to be an Executor of my Will and estate may qualify and serve during such 90-day period.

4.2 Estate Tax, Expenses, and Claims. All funeral expenses, all expenses incurred in the administration of my estate, all legally enforceable claims against my estate, and all estate tax arising in connection with my death with respect to all property included in my gross estate for the purpose of calculating such estate tax which passes under my Will, under a letter or memorandum entirely in my handwriting and signed by me after the date of this Will, or under the Trust Agreement shall be paid out of the residue of my estate (for the purposes of this section, the term "residue of my estate" shall include the residue of my estate passing under this Will and my share of all property held in the trust created under Article II of the Trust Agreement at my death) but to be apportioned as provided in the Trust Agreement. All estate tax arising in connection with my death with respect to all property included in my gross estate for the purpose of calculating such tax which does not pass under my Will, under a letter or memorandum entirely in my handwriting and signed by me after the date of this Will, or under the Trust Agreement shall be apportioned among and charged against each "person interested in the estate" (as defined in Section 124.001 of the Texas Estates Code) pursuant to the principles contained in Subchapter A of Chapter 124 of the Texas Estates Code. My Executor and the Trustee under the Trust Agreement shall have the authority to apply all or any portion of any beneficiary's share of, or beneficial interest in, the residue of my estate (as defined in this section) toward the payment of all or any portion of such beneficiary's allocable share of my estate tax caused by such beneficiary's interest in any property which is included in my gross estate for the purpose of paying such tax but which passes to such beneficiary under an instrument (for example, a beneficiary designation) other than my Will or the Trust Agreement. If separate trusts are established for any beneficiary under the Trust Agreement then, to the extent possible, the payment of any estate tax allocated to such trusts shall first be made from the property of such trust established under the Trust Agreement for such beneficiary with an inclusion ratio greater than zero (or if such trust has not yet been funded, from property to be allocated to such trust) before such payments are made from such trust established under the Trust Agreement for such beneficiary with an inclusion ratio of zero (or if such trust has not yet been funded, from property to be allocated to such trust). This section shall not apply to any property includable in my gross estate by reason of Section 2044 of the Code, it being my intention that the estate tax attributable to such Section 2044 property shall be apportioned to and charged against such property in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Trust Agreement (unless otherwise provided in my husband's Will), or if neither the Trust Agreement nor my husband's Will makes such apportionment, then in accordance with Section 2207A of the Code. This section shall also not apply to any generation skipping transfer taxes imposed by Section 2601 of the Code which shall instead be payable in accordance with Section 2603 of the Code.

4.3 Costs for Shipping. My Executor shall pay as an administration expense the cost of packing, shipping, and insuring the delivery of Personal Effects to a beneficiary at such beneficiary's residence or place of business.

4.4 Distributions During Administration. My Executor may make distributions from my estate immediately upon my death in accordance with the provisions of any trust provided for by the Trust Agreement, whether or not any such trust has actually come into existence or received any distribution from my estate.

4.5 Joint Return and Tax Elections. My Executor may join in the filing of a joint income tax return with my husband or his estate. My Executor may elect to claim administration expenses as deductions in whole or in part either in the income tax returns of my estate or in the federal estate tax return. If my husband survives me, then my Executor is authorized to file a federal estate tax return for the purpose of making the election with respect to any deceased spousal unused exclusion amount (as defined in Section 2010(c)(4) of the Code), even if no federal estate tax return would otherwise be due. In addition, if my husband so requests in writing, my Executor shall be obligated to file a federal estate tax return for the purpose of making such election, irrespective of any discretion granted elsewhere in this Will. In connection with any such right of my husband, my Executor shall give timely notice to my husband of the possible existence of any unused exclusion amount. The costs associated with the preparation of any such return shall be payable as an administrative expense of my estate. Further, I expressly confer upon my Executor the discretion to make the election to have all or any portion of the property passing under the Trust Agreement at my death, if any, qualify as "qualified terminable interest property" pursuant to the provisions of Section 2056(b)(7) of the Code. My Executor shall never be liable for exercising my Executor's discretion not to make such election.

ARTICLE V.

Fiduciary Provisions

5.1 Fiduciary Powers. Any Executor shall act free from control by any court and shall have all of the powers conferred upon trustees by the Texas Trust Code or any corresponding statute, except for any instance in which the Texas Trust Code, as amended, or any such other statutory provisions may conflict with the express provisions of this Will, in which case the express provisions of this Will shall control. In addition to such powers, any Executor is specifically authorized:

(a) To retain, in the discretion of my Executor, any property owned by me including securities of any Executor without liability for any depreciation or loss occasioned by such retention; in so doing and by this subsection (a) it is my express intention that, to the maximum extent allowed by law, my Executor not be subject to the duty to diversify under Section 117.005 of the Texas Trust Code with respect to the assets of my estate;

(b) To exchange, sell or lease (including leases for terms exceeding the duration of all trusts created by the Trust Agreement) for cash, property or credit, or to partition, publicly or privately, at such prices, on such terms, times and conditions and by instruments of such character and with such covenants as my Executor may deem proper, all or any part of the properties of my estate, and no vendee or lessee shall be required to look to the application of any funds paid to my Executor;

(c) To use the cash and any of the securities or other property owned by me to satisfy any loans or other debts for which my estate is liable or to continue all or any portion of such loans or debts;

(d) To borrow money from any source (including any Executor) and to mortgage, pledge, or in any other manner encumber all or any part of the properties of my estate as may be advisable in the judgment of my Executor for the advantageous administration of my estate;

(e) To invest and reinvest the properties of my estate in any kind of property whatsoever, real or personal (including oil, gas and other mineral leases, royalties, overriding royalties and other interests), whether or not productive of income and without regard to the proportion that such property or property of a similar character held may bear to my entire estate;

(f) To employ attorneys, accountants, investment managers, specialists and such other agents as my Executor or Trustee shall deem necessary or desirable; to have the authority to appoint an investment manager or managers to manage all or any part of the assets of my estate or any trust, and to delegate to said manager investment discretion and such appointment shall include the power to acquire and dispose of such assets; and to charge the compensation of such attorneys, accountants, investment advisors, investment managers, specialists and other agents and any other expenses against my estate or such trust;

(g) To enter into any transaction on behalf of my estate (including loans to beneficiaries for adequate security and adequate interest) despite the fact that another party to any such transaction may be (i) a trust of which any Executor under this Will is also a trustee; (ii) an estate of which any Executor under this Will is also an executor or administrator, including my estate; (iii) a business or trust controlled by any Executor under this Will or of which any such Executor, or any director, officer or employee of any such corporate Executor, is also a director, officer or employee; or (iv) any beneficiary or Executor under this Will acting individually; by this subsection (g) I intend to override the constraints that might otherwise be imposed on my Executor under Subchapter N of Chapter 356 of the Texas Estates Code or Sections 113.052 and 113.053 of the Texas Trust Code;

(h) To make, in the discretion of my Executor, any distribution required or permitted to be made to any beneficiary under this Will, in any of the following ways: (i) to such beneficiary directly; (ii) to the guardian of such beneficiary's person or estate; (iii) by utilizing the same directly for the health, support, maintenance or education of such beneficiary; (iv) to a person or financial institution serving as Custodian for such minor beneficiary under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act of any state; or (v) by reimbursing the person who is actually taking care of such beneficiary (even though such person is not the legal guardian) for expenditures made by such person for the benefit of such beneficiary; and the written receipts of the persons receiving such distributions shall be full and complete acquittances to my Executor;

(i) To store Personal Effects given to a person who is a minor under applicable law (or a person who my Executor deems incapacitated) for later distribution to such person, or to sell such property and add the proceeds of sale to a trust of which such person is a beneficiary;

(j) To partition in kind and make distributions (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary bequest or funding of any trust) in cash, in specific property, in undivided interests in property, or partly in cash and partly in property, and as a fiduciary may make such partitions and distributions without regard to the income tax basis of specific property allocated to any beneficiary (including any trust) and without making pro-rata distributions of specific assets;

(k) To release, in the discretion of my Executor, any fiduciary power at any time, in whole or in part, temporarily or permanently, by acknowledged instrument;

(l) To register and carry any securities or other property in the name of the nominee of any corporate Executor (or to hold any such property unregistered); to exercise any option, right or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stocks (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Executor), securities or other property; and to vote any stock owned by my estate;

(m) To invest and reinvest all or part of the properties of my estate in any common trust fund of any corporate Executor;

(n) To continue any business (whether a proprietorship, corporation, partnership, limited partnership or other entity) which I own or in which I am financially interested for such time as my Executor deems it to be in the best interest of my estate; to employ in the conduct of any such business such properties of my estate as my Executor deems proper; to borrow money for use in any such business alone or with other persons financially interested in such business and to secure such loan or loans by mortgage, pledge or any other manner of encumbrance of not only my interest in such business, but also such other properties of my estate as my Executor deems proper; to organize, either alone or jointly with others, new corporations, partnerships, limited partnerships or other entities; and generally to exercise with respect to the continuance, management, sale or liquidation of any business which I own or in which I am financially interested, or of any new business or business interest, all the powers which I could have exercised during my lifetime;

(o) To access, handle, distribute, and dispose of my digital assets, and to obtain, access, modify, delete, and control my passwords and other electronic credentials associated with my digital devices and digital assets;

(p) To enter into any written agreement customarily required of a prospective shareholder, member, or partner as a condition to becoming a shareholder, member, or partner in a corporation, limited liability company, or limited or general partnership under the terms of one or more of the governing instruments of such entity; and

(q) To the extent the provisions of this section are inconsistent with the Texas Prudent Investor Act, this section shall control.

5.2 Successor Fiduciary. Each Executor shall be relieved of any duty to examine the acts of any prior Executor and no court accounting shall be required. Each successor Executor shall be responsible only for those properties which are actually delivered to such Executor.

5.3 Fiduciary Liability. In acting or declining to act, each Executor may rely upon a written opinion of a competent attorney, any facts stated in a written document believed to be true or any other evidence such Executor deems sufficient. Each Executor shall be saved harmless from liability for any action taken, or for the failure to take any action, if done in good faith and without gross negligence.

ARTICLE VI.

Miscellaneous Provisions

6.1 Spendthrift Provision. Prior to the actual receipt of such property by any beneficiary, no property (income or principal) distributable under this Will shall be subject to anticipation or assignment by any beneficiary, or to attachment by or to the interference or control of any creditor or assignee of any beneficiary, or taken or reached by any legal or equitable process in satisfaction of any debt or liability of any beneficiary, and any attempted transfer or encumbrance of any interest in such property by any beneficiary hereunder prior to distribution shall be absolutely and wholly void.

6.2 Personal Effects. References to "Personal Effects" are to my interest in motor vehicles, tools, equipment, clothing, jewelry, household goods, pictures, paintings, sculptures, and other works of art, photographs, books, furniture and furnishings, frequent flier miles, club memberships, credit card reward points, hotel reward points, other articles of personal use or ornament and/or other personal effects of a nature, use or classification similar to the foregoing, but such references specifically do not include cryptocurrencies, non-fungible tokens (NFTs), or assets owned through blockchain or distributed ledger technology.

6.3 Digital Assets. References to "digital assets" are to: (i) files stored on my digital devices, including but not limited to, desktops, laptops, tablets, peripherals, storage devices, mobile telephones, smartphones, and any similar digital device that currently exists or that may exist as technology develops; (ii) emails received, email accounts, digital music, digital photographs, digital videos, software licenses, social network accounts, file sharing accounts, financial accounts, banking accounts, domain registrations, DNS service accounts, web hosting accounts, tax preparation service accounts, online stores, affiliate programs, cryptocurrency accounts, non-fungible tokens (NFTs), accounts owned through blockchain or distributed ledger technology, accounts associated with credit card reward points, hotel loyalty programs, or frequent flyer loyalty programs, other online accounts, and similar digital items that currently exist or that may exist as technology develops, regardless of the ownership of the physical device upon which the digital item is stored; and (iii) content of all electronic communications not otherwise described in this section.

6.4 Discretion. Whenever in this Will an action is authorized in the discretion of my Executor, the term "discretion" shall mean the sole, absolute, and uncontrolled discretion of my Executor.

6.5 Estate Tax. For purposes of this Will, the term "estate tax" has the meaning provided in Section 124.001 of the Texas Estates Code (and specifically includes interest and penalties).

6.6 Inclusion Ratio. References to "inclusion ratio" shall have the same meaning as that term is defined in Section 2642(a) of the Code.

6.7 Code. References to various sections of the "Code" are to such designated sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

6.8 Headings. The section headings contained in this Will are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Will.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto sign my name to this, my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, in the presence of two Witnesses, who are acting as witnesses at my request, in my presence and in the presence of each other, on this the 22nd day of April 2025.

Jessica Jae Hodge, Testatrix
